Sermon Questions for 10/25/26
Mark 14:10-42

1. Why was it important to Jesus that the disciples didn't know ahead of time the location of their last meal together?

2. How does our Text demonstrate that Jesus was in control? Do you sometimes feel like things are beyond God's control? Why or why not?

3. How does God's sovereignty bring you peace? How would you explain the relationship between the sovereignty of God and human free will?

4. There is a classic "Mark Sandwich" in this Text: The Last Supper is set between verses 17-21 (one of you will betray me), and 27-31 (you will all fall away). What is the relationship between the Last Supper and the events that come before and after it?

5. Do you think Judas was treated unfairly?

6. Because God is sovereign, there is not a thought or action in all of human history that he was not aware of or caught off guard. Knowing this about God, does this change how you see yourself before God? Is there anything that you can do that would change God's mind about you?

7. How do we relate to verse 37?

8. What was your greatest takeaway from this Text and sermon?
