

October 26, 2025 Sermon Questions

1. In what way did the widow in the text give more than all the others?
2. What is more important - a gift's monetary value, or its sacrificial value?
3. Have you ever given a gift that required a significant sacrifice? What would sacrificial giving look like in your life?
4. How can this text help you discern how to share what God has first given you in service to our church?
